

Lifeline Service

The Lifeline Service program offers a discount on your monthly telephone/broadband bill. Assistance in the way of the Lifeline Program is available to qualifying low-income consumers to make telephone/broadband service affordable.

Lifeline is a government assistance program

- Lifeline is supported by the federal Universal Service Fund (USF)
- Lifeline is non-transferable
- Only eligible consumers may enroll
- Only one Lifeline discount is allowed per household

To qualify for Lifeline, subscribers must either have an income that is at or below 150% of the federal Poverty Guidelines, or participate in one of the following assistance programs:

- Medicaid
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (FPHA)
- Low-Income Home Energy Assistance (LIHEAP)
- Health benefits coverage under the state Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)
- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF)
- The National School Lunch Program's Free Lunch Program

Universal Service support includes:

Lifeline assistance that provides federal discounts for basic monthly local telephone/broadband service
